PROHIBITION SERMONS AT TABERNACLE

Senator Funk and Attorney Law Each
Make Strong Appeals For State
Wide Dry Laws

Attorney A. A. Law's "back porch" talk at the Tabernacle on Sunday afternoon on the subject of Prohibition was a most convincing appeal, in fact it was one of the most practical prohibition sermons ever delivered from a local platform.

The speakers at the afternoon services were Senator J. W. Funk of Richmond and Attorney Law. Each acquitted himself well on the subject. Senator Funk gave his reasons for becoming a prohibitionist. He had been converted through his experiences. He had observed conditions under laws licensing the open saloon and he had observed conditions with the saloon abolished. The moral effect and the business effect under the different conditions were so marked that any thinking man will be found on the side of prohibition.

Senator Funk says the trips to Ogden and Salt Lake by automobile and electric rail are far too frequent to be tolerated by a community which wishes a dry town. Therefore he urged that we do our utmost for the cause of prohibition.

Attorney Law who followed the distinguished senator, said he had no set speech but would confine himself to a "back porch" talk and give some of his observations. It was a most effective appeal for the cause he has espoused. He said a prohibition policy is one that tends to uphold the human race, morally and intellectually. There is no set time to do good, he contended, but it should be the duty of every one to exert an influence for good at all times. "If we are to be held accountable for the things we do here in the hereafter, we will be held accountable for the influence we set along life's pathway from day to day, whether it be for good or ill."

Attorney Law referred to conditions in Logan some few years back when we first tried to put prohibition laws into effect in this city. He called attention to the well known fact that when our officers first tried to enforce the prohibition laws, the offender of the law had numerous friends who were willing to take up his cause and at once the officer would become the most despised man in the whole community. These conditions have completely changed, he said. Now the bootlegger is considered a menace to society and he finds but little sympathy when he is caught trying to break the laws governing the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Referring to the recent conversions to the cause of prohibition, Attorney Law said we should look into the causes for these conversions. Of course, these remarks were taken to refer to the men who are running for state office and who have past records on this question which are well known to the people of the state.

AT THE LYRIC

Born in Pig Tail Alley, little Sally soon grew to be of better clay than the remainder of the children in the alley. She had to work to support her parents, but with lofty ideals, prepared herself for a day when she would be recognized in the world. And the day did come.

Do not fail to see how Sally won the day in Sally In Our Alley, the five part World Picture which is the feature to be shown on the screen at the Lyric theater tonight.

WM. M. DOUGLAS OF SMITHFIELD PASSES AWAY

Smithfield, July 30.—William Mockrie Douglas passed away July 29 at his home in Smithfield, of general debility at the age of 81 years. In the death of William Douglas, Smithfield loses one of her early pioneers, he having settled here in 1860. Was born in Glasgow, Scotland, December 8, 1835 where he passed his early life. Having joined the Church when 19 years old and emigrated to Utah, leaving Liverpool, England in 1854 in the sailing ship John W. Wood. He has filled a two years mission to Bear Lake also filled a mission to his native land, laboring in the Scottish mission at Nottingham, Norwich and London conferences. For many years he was one of the leading merchants of northern Utah. He married Cynthia Merrill and later married Annie Copeland by which marriages he had sixteen children, thirteen surviving him also a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren. The funeral will be held in the Smithfield Second ward Tabernacle on Wednesday August 2 at 2 o'clock.

Funeral services were held over the remains of the four months old babe of Mr. and Mrs. William Rigby who died here Thursday evening after a short illness. The speakers were James Roskelley Bishop Danielson of Lewiston; William Noble and George Done. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Clara Sparks, Mrs. Jean Lundquist and Mrs. Rose Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Rigby have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. While battling his last Friday, Mr. Ira Hillyard caught his foot in the baller and it was badly crushed and it is feared amputation will be necessary.

ADVENTISTS SPEND MILLIONS FOR MISSIONS

Seventeen million dollars in ten years for missionary enterprises at home and abroad is the record of the Seventh Day Adventists in North America, according to the annual report issued by the statistical secretary, Mr. H. E. Rogers of Washington, D. C., which has just been received by members of the local church. During 1915 the Adventists of North America gave $2,542,682.99 for various church enterprises, a gain of $213,931.11 over 1914.

Adventists throughout the world gave during the nine years from 1906 to 1914, $20,100,550, and the sum contributed in North America last year would raise this to $22,643,236 but the world contributions of the last decade will be still further increased when all the returns are in from foreign fields. These are not yet available as war conditions cause some delay in making complete compilations for the entire world.

Secretary Rogers' report shows that the tithe or tenth of the income, paid by the church members of North America in 1915 amounted to $1,337,810.20, and that the offering for foreign missions known as the 20 cents per week fund, totalled $692,477.71. More than 5,000 new members were added to the Adventist churches in America last year.

The religious statistics compiled for the Laymen's Missionary Convention held in Los Angeles, March 1, show that in California Seventh Day Adventists led all other Protestant denominations in per capita contributions in 1915, the amount being an average of $30.61 for the year for every Adventist in the state.

KANSAS CITY RED SOX COMING TO LEWISTON

Fast Game of Baseball Thursday Afternoon. Cache Valley Fans Are Invited to Attend

The Kansas City Red Sox, one of the best baseball teams in the country, now on a western tour, will play a game of baseball at Lewiston, on Thursday afternoon with the Lewiston nine to which the valley ball fans are cordially invited to attend.

The Lewiston nine is one of the fastest semi-professional baseball teams in Utah. This team has played 17 games this season and out of that number of games, only four times has the score been recorded against it. The visitors have played 51 games since leaving Kansas City and have lost five games.

The Lewiston stop will be the only stop the visiting team will make in the valley and therefore if the public wishes to see the game, it will have to go to Lewiston. The management of the Lewiston is trying to set a rate on the electric line as an inducement to get a good crowd to the game as a heavy expense has been incurred in bringing this traveling team to the valley.

Remember the date, Thursday afternoon, August 3, and all be present.

FORMER WESTON BISHOP DIES IN THIS CITY

Alexander A. Allen, the son of Ezra H. Allen and Sarah B. Flake Allen, born September 28, 1845, at Nauvoo, Hancock County, Illinois, died, July 31 1916 at his residence, 166 North Fifth West, Logan, Utah. His father was a sister in the band of the Mormon Battalion and on his return from California met death at the hands of hostile Indians. He with his mother continued the journey to Utah and he settled in Cache Valley.

On February 22 1876 he was chosen bishop of the Weston ward and held this position for twenty years. He filled a faithful mission to the State of Virginia. He returned to Logan in 1907. Mr. Allen has ever been faithful to the cause he represented.

Mr. Allen is survived by two wives, fourteen children, fifty-one grandchildren, one great grandchild.

The funeral services will be held in the Third ward meeting house on Tuesday, August 2. Friends of the family are invited to attend. Those desiring to view the remains may do so today at the residence.

THE MAKING OF MADDALENA

In the story of, The Making of Maddalena, the Morosco Paramount photoplay coming to the Lyric theater on Wednesday and Thursday, George Hale is influenced to start an art career in Rome. He does this to win the admiration of the girl he loves. Being of a carefree, happy disposition he dallies with his work. Yet he feels wronged when he receives her letter confessing her love for and acceptance of another.

That power which always finds some mischief for an idler to do starts the trouble. George Hale's now reckless fancy attracts and awakes the emotions of the beautiful Italian model.

Miss Goodrich as Maddalena, the model, portrays the part with wonderful comprehension. She acts this not as an actress possessing great emotional powers, but as would act a humble born Italian girl of ready sympathies and ambitious desires.

The evident fascination of doing that which ought not to be done leads George Hale into an indiscreet marriage. This marriage works a great and almost fatal havoc in many lives. This is well told by the acting of the strong cast including besides Edna Goodrich, Forest Stanley, Juan de la Cruz, Howard Davies, John Burton, Mary Mersch and Collin Chase.

WORKING ON NEW BEET BINS AT SUGAR FACTORY

Amalgamated Sugar Company Spending $45,000 in Replacing Old Beet Sheds

To facilitate the handling of the large quantity of sugar beets which the Logan factory of the Amalgamated Sugar Company is required to handle the old beet sheds at the factory site have been pulled down and on the property to the west of the factory is being erected new beet bins at a cost of upwards of $45,000. The new bins are to be the best ideas in sheds which experience in the handling of beets has produced.

The Lynch Construction Company of Salt Lake City has the contract for putting down the concrete footings and the building of new conveyors. These new conveyors are a great convenience to the farmers who haul their beets direct to the factory. The unloading process is very simple when the proper wagon beet racks are provided. The beets will be conveyed by means of belts to all sections of the large beet sheds which cover much more space in width and are a hundred feet longer than the old sheds.

There are fifteen flumes running through the sheds lengthwise conveying the shedded beets to the main flume which carries the beets to the factory. The Lynch Construction Co. has upwards of 25 men at work on its contract and H. H. Hawkes of the Second ward has at least that many men working under his direction who are doing the carpentry work on this large structure. As soon as the preliminary work is done, Mr. Hawkes will have employed at least 50 men on nailing together the 500,000 feet of lumber which is required in the building of these bins.

An effort is being put forth to complete the work not later than September 15.

TWO YEARS AGO TODAY SINCE THE WAR STARTED

It is two years today since the beginning of the European war, and yet the prospects of peace seem far removed. From this distance it is impossible to say whether the object of either of the warring factions has in any measure been obtained. Be that object what it may have attained or unattained, one can only feel that the cost has far outweighed the advantage. This burden of debt and misery will be borne by the unborn generations of the world for scores of years to come. The cost in dollars and cents has reached a sum far beyond the comprehension of most of us and the cost in human lives, misery and suffering is a shock to the sensibilities to contemplate.

The fortunes of both belligerents have ebbed and flowed throughout these two years. At present the tide of battle seems to be at ebb time for the entente allies. There has been waging for the past five months the most titanic struggle in the history of the world, the battle of Verdun, and it appears after this prolonged struggle that it all will end only with the complete exhaustion of one or the other of the warring groups. The only results visible at this distance is the measured depletion of their resources for continuing the conflict, because one can only conclude that after two years of carnage like that witnessed at Verdun the end must be near, as it is a physical impossibility for any power or powers to long stand the slaughter of millions of men and the expenditure of billions of money.

OGDEN CONCERN ADVERTISING ITS PRODUCTS

Sending Souvenir Cartoons of Sliced Bacon to Cache Valley Patrons

We are in receipt of a souvenir from the Ogden Packing and Provision Company which, in our opinion, is one of the nicest souvenirs ever distributed of this or any other plant's manufacture. The souvenir is a cartoon containing one pound of delicious sliced breakfast bacon. The cartoon is tastefully branded and is wrapped in waxed paper, and the product itself, the very choicest sliced breakfast bacon it has been our privilege to sample. This is a Utah concern of which the people of the state are justly proud. This concern is spending this year approximately $200,000 in improvements and increasing the capacity of its plant.

The Ogden Packing and Provision Company was very prominent in the entertainment of the Cache Valley retail merchants on their recent get acquainted excursion to Ogden and those who were in attendance on that occasion will not forget the impression they received of the sanitary and up to date methods used in curing and packing of selected meats. Neither will they forget the hospitality extended on that occasion, and in return we shall not forget when ordering selected cured meats to ask for the Mountain Brand and we think that all who are interested in buying the choicest product of the market should do likewise.

When doing this we are not only fostering an infant industry, but we also stimulate the livestock industry of our own state which contributes largely the beef cattle, sheep, and hogs cured at the Ogden plant. Only last Saturday, Mr. Lind of the Ogden Packing and Provision Company was in Cache Valley arranging for the purchase of several car loads of fat hogs, all of which will be cured by his company and that portion which is not consumed by the local market will be sent away for consumption in foreign markets.

DEPOT ABOUT READY FOR OCCUPANCY

O. L. & I. Has Modern Building For Handling Local Passenger and Express Business

The local depot of the Ogden, Logan and Idaho Railway Company is assuming definite form. The high board fence which has been hiding the structure from public gaze during the course of construction has been moved away and now one gets a clear conception of what a modern depot we are to have.

The interior of the building has not been completed but the brick work is all done and when the window panes have been inserted the exterior part of the building is completed.

To the rear of the building are being arranged, all possible conveniences for handling express business, trunks and luggage of passengers who take the electric route when leaving the valley. Dahle and Eccles contractors, have done the contract work on this depot.

MILK PRICES FOR MONTH OF AUGUST

Borden's Condensed Milk Company, of Utah, announces that it will pay for milk at Logan and Wellsville factories during the month of August, 35 cents per pound for butter fat at patrons milk stand and 37 cents per pound delivered at the factories.
